Welcome: Mary Gomez

PEER REVIEWER DATABASE LOGOUT

Welcome to the Office of Justice Program (OJP) Peer Reviewer Database

The Office of Justice Programs (OJP) has identified you as a potential peer reviewer for enrollment into OJP's Peer Reviewer Database (PRD). The PRD is a database of peer reviewers who are approved by OJP program managers and approved peer review support staff.

To be selected for a specific peer review panel, you must complete a peer review application. Once submitted, you will be eligible to participate in peer reviews for that panel.

- Bureau of Justice Statistics
- Bureau of Justice Assistance
- National Institute of Justice
- Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention
- Office for Victims of Crime
- Office of Sex Offender Sentencing, Monitoring, Apprehension, and Supervision

Once you have entered your information in the PRD, you may update your profile. Peer Reviewers are encouraged to periodically update their personal information to ensure accurate information possible to best match your skills to individual panels.

JUSTGRANTS AND PEER REVIEW

On October 15, 2020, the Department of Justice's (DOJ) grant making components—the Office of Community Oriented Policing Services (COPS Office), the Office of Justice Programs (OJP), and the Office on Violence Against Women (OVW)—launched new grants management and payment management systems.

- FY 2021 was the first year using JustGrants for Peer Review
- Experienced several issues shortly after launch, with peer review functionality.
- Immediate steps taken to remediate those issues, where the remainder of FY 21 peer review cycle improved significantly
- Since October 2021 and through much of FY 2022, OJP has been focused on stabilizing the system to ensure it works as intended and designed, which includes stabilizing the peer review functionality.
- Anticipating a much smoother FY 2022 peer review cycle as a result.
- OJP Peer Review Website: <https://www.ojp.gov/funding/peer-reviewers#resources>, which includes details on how to become a reviewer, eLearning Videos, and links to JustGrants information and resources.
