OVC Overview

Mission: OVC is committed to enhancing the Nation’s capacity to assist crime victims and to providing leadership in changing policies and practices to promote justice and healing for all victims of crime.

OVC funding supports:

- victims in tribal communities;
- state victim compensation and assistance programs;
- training and technical assistance and information resources;
- victims of international terrorism and mass violence;
- federal agencies’ provision of victim services;
- survivors of human trafficking; and
- demonstration and service projects.
Timeline

- Solicitation Closes: Monday, July 19, 2021
- DOJ expects to award grants no later than September 30, 2021
- All project START dates should be on or after October 1, 2021

Please Note: Successful applicants MAY NOT begin work until the budget has been reviewed and officially approved by OJP. Additional information and or restrictions may be outlined in the award package.
Eligibility

The following entities are eligible to apply:
• Individuals

The successful candidate must demonstrate substantial knowledge of data and research related to victimization and victim services, and have the skills to communicate orally and in writing with a broad audience of stakeholders. Applicants must be able to be onsite at OVC in Washington, D.C., for a minimum of 1 week per 6 months throughout a 36-month project period, unless there are unique circumstances that would prevent the grantee Fellow from being onsite. The grantee Fellow will work with OVC to determine unique circumstances and make adjustments, as necessary. Organizations are not eligible to apply.

For additional information on eligibility, please review the title page of the solicitation.
Program Description

This program will support a grantee fellow at OVC. The individual awarded funding under this program will work collaboratively with OVC and the crime victim services field to improve support and resources for state victim compensation programs.
Specific Information

Review the solicitation details around:

• Schedule
• Time Sheets
• Equipment/Supplies
• Security Clearance
• Relationship to OVC
• Federal Debt
• Lobbying
• Financial Management Training
Goal

The goal of this fellowship program is to improve support and resources for state compensation programs to more efficiently and effectively administer their programs and VOCA Victim Compensation Program funding, including increasing access to compensation for victims of color, who have historically had challenges with accessing or receiving compensation in comparison to other eligible victim populations.
Objectives

• Assist OVC/OJP work with State Administrators to support compensation programs;
• Assess individual state compensation programs, and applicable laws, rules, regulations, polices, and other guidance or programs impacting the operations and execution of state compensation programs;
• Identify barriers that prevent all victims of crime from accessing and receiving compensation, and provide recommendations at the national and state levels to overcome those barriers;
• Advance OVC/OJP’s support of compensation programs to promote equity in access to and receipt of compensation funding;
• Identify model best practices across compensation programs; share the best practices with OVC and state programs; and develop trainings/public outreach efforts to raise awareness; and
• Make recommendations to OVC.
The project will produce the following deliverables:

- A nationwide assessment of state compensation programs.
- A report on recommendations to improve OVC/OJP’s efforts to enhance communication with states regarding compensation programs.
- A report on recommendations to improve OVC/OJP’s support of state compensation systems, policies, and structures, to include:
  - identified barriers that prevent all victims of crime, including victims of color, from accessing and receiving compensation;
  - recommendations at the national and state level to overcome those barriers; and
  - recommendations to advance OVC/OJP efforts to promote equity in access to and receipt of compensation funding.
- Trainings, outreach, public awareness efforts, and public resources.
- Focus groups facilitated with Compensation Administrators and OVC staff.
- Monthly reports.

Deliverables
OJP Priority Areas

In FY 2021 and in addition to executing any statutory prioritization that may be applicable, OJP will give priority consideration to applications as follows:

– Applications that will advance the promotion of civil rights, access to justice, support to crime victims, protecting the public from crime and evolving threats, or building trust between law enforcement and the community.

– Applications that demonstrate that the individuals who are intended to benefit from the requested grant reside in high-poverty areas or persistent-poverty counties.

For additional information, please see the solicitation.

2. Project design and implementation
3. Capabilities and competencies
4. Plan for collecting the data required for this solicitation’s performance measures
Proposal Narrative: Description of the Issue

The applicant must clearly articulate an understanding of the problem that this project plans to address by providing information about—

• Current practices in state compensation programs.
• How data can be used by victim compensation administrators and other providers in the field to improve services for victims.
• Gaps in information and knowledge by practitioners within the field.
• Gaps in accessing compensation, focusing on victims of color.
• Problems related to disseminating information to the field and integration of information into practice.
Proposal Narrative: Project Design and Implementation

This section should include goals, objectives and activities that are aligned with solicitation

- Be brief, concise, and clear.
- Make sure the information is consistent throughout your proposal.
- Create solid goals and measurable objectives:
  - Objectives should be SMART:
    - Specific, Measurable, Attainable, Realistic, and Time-bound
  - Focus on the future and setting a realistic timeline to complete the project.
Proposal Narrative: Capabilities and Competencies

This section must—

• Provide a clear description of academic and professional expertise in the fellowship specialization subject matter area(s), including but not limited to, experience with administration or management of victim compensation programs.

• Document experience in providing oral presentations and developing written publications or technical assistance products for broad audiences of stakeholders.

• Describe other relevant competencies. Resumes or curriculum vitae must be included as a separate attachment.
Proposal Narrative: Plan for Collecting Data

• Who will be responsible for reporting the required performance measures?
• How will data be collected?
• Any additional performance metrics?
• What data sources will be used? – Any legal, policy, or other barriers to gaining access?
Budget Worksheet and Budget Narrative (Web-Based Form)

See the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide for additional information.

- Use the JustGrants web-based form.
- Personnel costs should relate to the key personnel for the project.
- The budget should include adequate funding to fully implement the project, broken out by year, reflecting 36 months.
- The budget should be mathematically sound and correspond with information described in the Proposal Narrative and aligned with the project design.
