Program Description

Overview

The Department of Justice is committed to advancing work that promotes civil rights, increases access to justice, supports crime victims, protects the public from crime and evolving threats, and builds trust between law enforcement and the community.

The program provides for the development, operation, and management of the Office for Victims of Crime's National Center for Culturally Responsive Victim Services (the Center). The Center will facilitate the delivery of national-scale, high-quality training and technical assistance to increase access to victim services and victim compensation for victims of crime in areas that have been historically underserved, marginalized, and adversely affected by inequality, including communities of color. See Executive Order 13985, Advancing Racial Equity and Support for Underserved Communities Through the Federal Government § 2(b) (January 20, 2021) (defining "underserved communities"). The Center will increase the capacity of community-based organizations to address the critical need for culturally relevant, trauma-informed, victim-centered services. The Center's efforts will also align with the Federal government's goal in advancing equity for all, as outlined in Executive Order 13985.

Statutory Authority

34 U.S.C. § 20103(c)(1)(A)

Specific Information

The Center will serve as a national resource to help analyze critical issues, provide education and outreach, develop resources, promote culturally relevant advocacy and intervention; and provide consultation, peer-to-peer learning opportunities and other technical assistance and training. The Center will inform public policy and improve culturally relevant, trauma-informed, victim-centered services for victims in the communities to be served. The Center will work to strengthen and support victim services provided by community- and faith-based organizations and other stakeholders who provide direct assistance to victims of crime as all or part of their mission. The Center will provide technical assistance to develop infrastructure that improves service delivery and builds capacity for the management of state and federal grants for victim services.

The grantee funded under this program should have an established record of representing and working on behalf of historically underserved communities, including communities of color, as its primary mission and demonstrate successful outcomes.

Goals, Objectives, Deliverables, and Timeline

Goals

The goals of this program are to: 1) promote racial equity in victim services and compensation by enhancing the organizational and programmatic capacity of victim service organizations run by and for historically underserved communities, including communities of color; 2) provide comprehensive, training and technical assistance to advance services to victims of crime; and 3) to build the capacity and infrastructure of organizations that provide victim services in underserved communities as all or part of their mission.

Objectives

1. Identify and reach out to organizations that serve victims in communities that have been historically underserved, marginalized, and adversely affected by persistent inequality, including communities of color, where there are few or no state or federally funded grantees or subgrantees that serve victims.
2. Conduct a needs assessment in those communities to: identify barriers that are inhibiting victims' awareness, access, and utilization of victim services and victim compensation; identify gaps in victim services to better understand the capacity of community-based organizations to provide culturally specific services to crime victims; and raise the awareness of those community-based organizations about state and federal programs, resources, and funding opportunities.
3. Develop and deliver culturally competent training and technical assistance to victim service providers, community- and faith-based organizations, and other stakeholders in historically underserved communities, including communities of color, that provide direct assistance to victims as all or part of their mission.
4. Enhance knowledge of and access to state and federal grant opportunities for organizations that serve victims of crime in underserved communities and provide training and technical assistance on programmatic and fiscal management of state and federal grant funds.

Deliverables

1. Develop an outreach plan to obtain insight from historically underserved communities, including communities of color. This could include conducting site visits and hosting listening sessions in the communities to be served.
2. Complete a needs assessment that identifies underlying causes of violence and victimization; barriers that inhibit victims in underserved communities from accessing services and victim compensation; and gaps in victim services.

3. Develop and implement a training and technical assistance capacity building strategy that addresses outreach to culturally specific community-based organizations in historically underserved communities, including communities of color, where there are few or no Victims of Crime Act (VOCA) programs; culturally competent training and technical assistance to victim service providers, community- and faith-based organizations, and other stakeholders in underserved communities who may provide services to crime victims as all or part of their mission; and increase knowledge of, and access to, state and federal victim service grant opportunities to strengthen and sustain organizations in the identified communities.
4. Work collaboratively with OVC and other OVC technical assistance providers, particularly those working with VOCA State Administrators, to advance access to victims services and compensation in historically underserved communities, including communities of color.
5. Develop a report on the success of the project in meeting OVC goals and objectives.
6. Complete and submit financial, progress, and other reports as required by the cooperative agreement.

The Goals, Objectives, and Deliverables are directly related to the performance measures that demonstrate the results of the work completed, as discussed under Application and Submission Information.

Evidence-Based Programs or Practices

OJP strongly emphasizes the use of data and evidence in policymaking and program development in criminal justice, juvenile justice, and crime victim services. For additional information and resources on evidence-based programs or practices, see the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide.

Information Regarding Potential Evaluation of Programs and Activities

OJP may conduct or support an evaluation of the programs and activities funded under this solicitation. For additional information, see the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide section entitled "Information Regarding Potential Evaluation of Programs and Activities."

Priority Areas

The Department of Justice is committed to advancing work that promotes civil rights, increases access to justice, supports crime victims, protects the public from crime and evolving threats, and builds trust between law enforcement and the community. In FY 2021, OJP will give priority consideration in award decisions to applications that demonstrate ways in which their projects will advance one or more of these areas.

To receive priority consideration for advancing one or more of the Department's priorities, the applicant must provide a sufficient narrative explanation as an attachment, that specifies how the project will advance the promotion of civil rights, access to justice, support to crime victims, protecting the public from crime and evolving threats, or building trust between law enforcement and the community.

In addition, OJP will give priority consideration, if applicable, to applicants that demonstrate that the individuals who are intended to benefit from the requested grant reside in high-poverty areas or persistent-poverty counties.

To receive priority consideration under the poverty priority, the applicant must provide information to demonstrate that the individuals who are intended to benefit from the requested grant reside in high-poverty areas or persistent poverty counties. For purposes of this priority consideration, the term "high-poverty area" means any census tract with a poverty rate of at least 20 percent as measured by the 2013–2017 5-year data series available from the American Community Survey of the Census Bureau (applicants may search by census tract at <https://www.census.gov/acs/www/data/data-tables-and-tools/narrative-profiles/2017/>) and the term "persistent poverty counties" means any county that has had 20 percent or more of its population living in poverty over the past 30 years, as measured by the 1990 and 2000 decennial censuses and the most recent Small Area Income and Poverty Estimates (applicants may search by county at <https://www.census.gov/data/tables/time-series/dec/census-poverty.html> and at <https://www.census.gov/programs-surveys/saipe.html>).

Priority consideration is one of many factors that OJP considers in making funding decisions and is not a guarantee of an award.

Application Review Information

Review Criteria

a. Merit Review Criteria

Applications that meet basic minimum requirements will be evaluated by peer reviewers. Applications will be evaluated on how the proposed project/program addresses the following criteria:

1. Statement of the Problem/Description of the Issue (10%) - evaluate the applicant's understanding of the program/issue to be addressed.
2. Project Design and Implementation (45%) - evaluate the adequacy of the proposal, including the goals, objectives, timelines, milestones, and deliverables.
3. Capabilities and Competencies (30%) - evaluate administrative and technical capacity of the applicant to successfully accomplish the goals and objectives, including the applicant's authentic, demonstrable connections to the communities to be served
4. Plan for Collecting the Data Required for this Solicitation's Performance Measures (5%) - evaluate the applicant's understanding of the performance data reporting requirements and the plan for collecting the required data.
5. Budget (10%) - evaluate for completeness, cost effectiveness, and allowability (e.g., reasonable, allocable, and necessary for project activities).

b. Other Review Criteria/Factors

Other important considerations for OVC include: geographic diversity, strategic priorities, (specifically including, but not limited to, those mentioned above relating to priority areas), available funding, past performance, an established record of representing and working on behalf of underserved communities, including communities of color, and the extent to which the Budget Worksheet and Budget Narrative (Web-based form) accurately explain project costs that are reasonable, necessary, and otherwise allowable under federal law and applicable federal cost principles.

Review Process

Applications submitted under this solicitation that meet basic minimum requirements, will be evaluated for technical merit by a peer review panel(s) in accordance with OJP peer review policy and procedures using the stated review criteria above.

OJP screens applications to ensure they meet the basic minimum requirements prior to conducting peer review. Although specific requirements may vary, the following are common requirements applicable to all solicitations for funding under OJP programs:

- The application must be submitted by an eligible type of applicant.
- The application must request funding within programmatic funding constraints (if applicable).
- The application must be responsive to the scope of the solicitation.
- The application must include all items necessary to meet the basic minimum requirements.

Pursuant to the Part 200 Uniform Requirements, before award decisions are made, OJP also reviews information related to the degree of risk posed by the applicant. Among other things to help assess whether an applicant that has one or more prior federal awards has a satisfactory record with respect to performance, integrity, and business ethics, OJP checks whether the applicant is listed in SAM as excluded from receiving a federal award.

In addition, if OJP anticipates that an award will exceed $250,000 in federal funds, OJP also must review and consider any information about the applicant that appears in the non-public segment of the integrity and performance system accessible through SAM (currently, the Federal Awardee Performance and Integrity Information System, FAPIIS).

Important note on FAPIIS: An applicant, may review and comment on any information about itself that currently appears in FAPIIS and was entered by a federal awarding agency. OJP will consider any such comments by the applicant, in addition to the other information in FAPIIS, in its assessment of the risk posed by the applicant.

Absent explicit statutory authorization or written delegation of authority to the contrary, all final award decisions will be made by the Assistant Attorney General, who may take into account not only peer review ratings and OVC recommendations, but also other factors as indicated in this section.
