Mission: OVC is committed to enhancing the Nation’s capacity to assist crime victims and to providing leadership in changing policies and practices to promote justice and healing for all victims of crime.

OV C funding supports:

• victims in tribal communities;
• state victim compensation and assistance programs;
• training and technical assistance and information resources;
• victims of international terrorism and mass violence;
• federal agencies’ provision of victim services;
• survivors of human trafficking; and
• demonstration and service projects.
Timeline

- Solicitation Closes: Tuesday, June 29, 2021
- DOJ expects to award grants no later than September 30, 2021
- All project START dates should be on or after October 1, 2021

Please Note: Successful applicants MAY NOT begin work until the budget has been reviewed and officially approved by OJP. Additional information and or restrictions may be outlined in the award package.
Program Description

The U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), Office of Justice Programs (OJP), Office for Victims of Crime (OVC), is seeking applications for states or tribes to develop, enhance, and coordinate programs and activities geared toward improving outcomes for child and youth victims of sex and labor trafficking. This program aims to improve statewide coordination and multidisciplinary collaboration to address human trafficking involving children and youth. This program furthers the Department’s mission by enhancing the field’s response to child and youth victims of human trafficking.
Eligibility

- Native American tribal governments (federally recognized)
- State governments

For additional information on eligibility, please review the title page of the solicitation.
OJP Priority Areas

In FY 2021 and in addition to executing any statutory prioritization that may be applicable, OJP will give priority consideration to applications as follows:

- Applications that will advance the promotion of civil rights, access to justice, support to crime victims, protecting the public from crime and evolving threats, or building trust between law enforcement and the community.
- Applications that demonstrate that the individuals who are intended to benefit from the requested grant reside in high-poverty areas or persistent-poverty counties.

For additional information, please see the solicitation.
Goal

Goal: to improve responses for child and youth victims of trafficking, with a focus on coordination at the statewide or tribal jurisdiction level, to create effective change across systems.
Objectives

Successful applicants will achieve this goal through the following objectives:

IDENTIFY CHALLENGES AND OPPORTUNITIES

- Develop and implement a jurisdiction-wide strategy to combat the greatest challenge areas.
- Develop protocols and procedures to ensure child and youth victims receive appropriate services.
- Fill gaps in existing services and coordinate responses in existing anti-trafficking and youth-serving efforts.
- Conduct data collection evaluation activities.
- Develop a unified strategy to provide training to professionals throughout the jurisdiction.
Deliverables

To achieve the above goals, applicants will be required to complete the following deliverables:

- A written strategy or action plan.
- Documented lessons learned related to implementing the statewide strategy and the potential impacts on child and youth victims of human trafficking.
- Written protocols and procedures ensuring child and youth victims receive appropriate services, including developmentally, age-appropriate, and/or linguistically tailored referrals and/or services.
- A written training plan and submission of training materials.
- Outreach and awareness materials.
- Documentation and reporting on services provided.
- A Plan for Evaluation and Data Collection for this Solicitation’s Performance Measures.
