Program Description

To enhance capacity to identify, assist, and provide services to all victims of human trafficking, the Office for Victims of Crime (OVC) leads the nation in supporting victim-centered and trauma-informed programs, policies, and resources that promote justice, access, and empowerment.

This program will provide funding for services to victims of human trafficking, as defined by 22 U.S.C. § 7102(11).
Goal

To provide safe, stable housing and appropriate trauma-informed, victim-centered services by organizations with the capacity to implement collaborative, coordinated, and comprehensive services models.

Organizations are to engage with appropriate local resources to address the needs of victims of human trafficking that will lead to increased autonomy, self-sufficiency, and increased safety and well-being.
Objectives

1. Deliver and expand housing interventions and related support services for victims of human trafficking;
2. Collaborate with and train local partners to improve their knowledge and ability to identify and appropriately respond to human trafficking victims;
3. Provide victims of human trafficking with trauma-informed, victim-centered support services or referrals for other essential services;
4. Develop and implement housing policies and training that incorporate low barrier, victim-centered, trauma-informed, and collaborative approaches;
5. Inform federal, state, and local frameworks and collaboration models to meet the housing needs of victims of human trafficking;
6. Improve outcomes for victims of human trafficking; and
7. Collect data and conduct ongoing assessment activities to determine if the program is meeting the stated goals and objectives.
The deliverables to be provided are services, measured quarterly by service-hour or units delivered, type of service, number of new and continuing victims served, and other key data points.
OJP Priority Areas

1. Priority Considerations Supporting Executive Order 13985, Advancing Racial Equity and Support for Underserved Communities Through the Federal Government

   A. Applications that include project(s) that will promote racial equity and the removal of barriers to access and opportunity for communities that have been historically underserved, marginalized, and adversely affected by inequality, when making award decisions.

   B. Applicants that can demonstrate that their capabilities and competencies for implementing their proposed project(s) are enhanced because the applicant (or at least one proposed subrecipient that will receive at least 30% of the requested award funding, as demonstrated in the Budget Worksheet and Budget Narrative) identifies as a culturally specific organization.

For additional information, please see the solicitation.

Application and Submission Information
Applications MUST Include

These elements MUST be included in the application submission to meet the basic minimum requirements to advance to peer review and receive consideration for funding:

– Proposal Abstract
– Proposal Narrative
  • Statement of the Problem (20%)
  • Project Design and Implementation (45%)
  • Capabilities and Competencies (20%)
  • Plan for Collecting the Data for this Solicitation’s Performance Measures (5%)
– Budget Worksheet and Budget Narrative (web-based form) (10%)

Remember, if you fail to submit ANY of required documents, your application will not be considered for funding!
Proposal Abstract

An abstract is a clear and simple summary statement about your proposal.

This statement should be no more than 400 words and should include:

- purpose of the project,
- primary activities,
- expected outcomes,
- the service area, and
- intended beneficiaries and subrecipients

This will be completed in the JustGrants Web-based form.
Proposal Narrative Format

The proposal narrative must:

– Be double-spaced
– Use a standard 12-point font
– Have no less than 1-inch margins
– NOT exceed 25 pages. Pages should be numbered “1 of 25,” “2 of 25,” etc.
– Be submitted as an attachment in JustGrants.
Proposal Narrative Format

The following sections are part of the proposal narrative:

1. Statement of the problem
2. Project design and implementation
3. Capabilities and competencies
4. Plan for collecting the data required for this solicitation’s performance measures

Outline ALL the grant requirements and make a plan to fulfill each and EVERY REQUIREMENT.
Proposal Narrative: Statement of the Problem

This section must:

• Describe the nature and scope of the problem that the program will address. Demonstrate the problem of human trafficking within the targeted geographic area. Cite the source(s) of this data, which should come from multiple sources and extend beyond national hotline data.

• Describe previous or current attempts to address the problem, including documentation of the number of trafficking victims served each year during 2020 and 2021 within the targeted geographic area. At a minimum, identify the total number of victims previously served within the targeted geographic area, and the types of victims served. Cite the source(s) of this data.

• Describe the communities to be served, including the geographic area, populations in the service area, and any groups that are vulnerable to human trafficking. Identify any relevant underserved communities in their geographic area using data to support.

• Describe current efforts to address the service needs of trafficking survivors in the geographic area, including programs funded through federal programs. Explain how the proposed project is not duplicative and targets identified gaps.
Proposal Narrative: Project Design and Implementation

This section should include goals, objectives and activities that are aligned with the solicitation.

- Be brief, concise, and clear.
- Make sure the information is consistent throughout your proposal.
- Create solid goals and measurable objectives:
  - Objectives should be SMART:
    - Specific, Measurable, Attainable, Realistic, and Time-bound
  - Focus on the future and setting a realistic timeline to complete the project.
Proposal Narrative: Capabilities and Competencies

This section must:

1. Demonstrate the institutional experience and expertise (or have submitted formal agreements with partners with such experience and expertise) to implement the requirements of this solicitation.

2. Identify the key individuals and organizations involved in the proposed project.

3. Demonstrate that the individuals and organizations identified have the capacity to address the stated need, including the expertise necessary to provide services to human trafficking victims, and can successfully implement the proposed project activities.

4. Describe specific roles and responsibilities of all project partners and key staff.

5. Demonstrate that project staff have appropriate training and experience to implement project activities as described in the proposal, including the knowledge and expertise necessary to implement culturally responsive projects with the identified underserved communities, and document plans and position descriptions for staff to be hired.
6. Demonstrate the capacity and expertise of the lead applicant and all project partners to serve victims of human trafficking.

7. Clearly describe who will implement activities as described in the Project Design and Implementation section.

8. Describe their experience managing federal grants that support services to crime victims and document their administrative and financial capacity to manage federal grants. If the applicant has other grants for providing services to victims of human trafficking, the applicant must describe the scope of each of these grants and describe how activities and data collection on these projects will be tracked separately to avoid duplication.

9. If seeking priority consideration under Priority B, describe within this section how being a culturally specific organization (or funding a culturally specific subrecipient organization at a minimum of 30% of the project budget) will enhance its ability to implement the proposed project(s) and should also specify which culturally specific populations are intended or expected to be served or have their needs addressed under the proposed project(s).
Proposal Narrative:
Plan for Collecting Data

This section must include the following information:

1. A plan for collecting all of the performance measures data required by this solicitation.

2. A description of the qualifications of key staff who will be responsible for collecting data and reporting performance measures in JustGrants.
• Use the JustGrants web-based form.
• Personnel costs should relate to the key personnel for the project.
• The budget should include adequate funding to fully implement the project, broken out by year, reflecting 36 months.
• The budget should be mathematically sound and correspond with information described in the Proposal Narrative and aligned with the project design.
• Address Priority 1B considerations, if applicable.
Create a SMART Budget

Be SPECIFIC when listing all your expenses

Under the computation column of the budget, make sure your costs are MEASURABLE

Ensure that your budget items are ATTAINABLE

If you put your timeline next to your budget, make sure each item is accounted for, then your budget should be RELEVANT.

Make sure your budget is TIME-BOUND and broken down year by year or month by month.
Budget - Match

Federal funds awarded under this program may not cover more than 25% of the total costs of the project being funded. The applicant must identify the source of the 25% nonfederal portion of the total project costs and how match funds will be used.

- Matching funds are to be used in the same manner as Federal funds
- Recipients must maintain records/documentation regarding match

Federal Award Amount = Adjusted (Total) Project Costs

Federal Share Percentage

Required Recipient’s Share Percentage x Adjusted Project Cost = Required Match

Example: 75%/25% match requirement: for a federal award amount of $350,000, calculate match as follows:

\[
\begin{align*}
$350,000 &= $466,667 \\
25\% \times $466,667 &= $116,667 \text{ match}
\end{align*}
\]
Along with the 3 required documents, the following information should be included in the application submission:

- Information to Complete the Application for Federal Assistance (SF-424) in Grants.gov
- Standard Application Information (SF-424 info from Grants.gov)
- Indirect Cost Rate Agreement (if applicable)
- Financial Management and System of Internal Controls Questionnaire
- Disclosure of Process Related to Executive Compensation
- Tribal Authorizing Resolution (if applicable)
- Research and Evaluation Independence and Integrity (if applicable)
- Request and Justification for Employee Compensation; Waiver (if applicable)

- Documentation of DOJ Priority Areas (if applicable)
- Disclosure of Lobbying Activities (SF-LLL)
- Applicant Disclosure of Duplication in Cost Items
- DOJ Certified Standard Assurance
- DOJ Certifications Regarding Lobbying; Debarment, Suspension and Other Responsibility Matters; and Drug-Free Workplace Requirements
- Applicant Disclosure and Justification—DOJ High-Risk Grantees (if applicable)
Hallmarks of an Outstanding Application

- Use simple and concise language.
- Ensure information is presentable and organized!
- Add tables, graphs, staff photos, and other images when possible while being mindful of grant guidelines.
- Be realistic about how you will achieve goals.
- Get feedback from those who may run the project!
- Make sure the proposal is consistent with the solicitation.
- Check, recheck, and check again—budget, grant requirements, references, and other grant details.
Common Reasons Cited for a Weak Application

• Too ambitious or lacks focus
• Applicant lacks appropriate expertise to carry out the proposed project
• No evidence of feasibility (do not assume reviewers are as familiar with the project as you are)
• Poor writing and a lot of errors
Application Process
Two Step Application Process

Submission into Grants.Gov
Due: June 9, 2022

Submission of the Full Application into JustGrants and Grants.gov
Due: June 16, 2022
Applicants have two application submission deadlines:

1. Grants.gov (submitting the SF-424 and SF-LLL)
2. JustGrants

It’s OK to enter preliminary budget or programmatic data in Grants.gov and update later in JustGrants.

A JustGrants submission should include all items as defined in the solicitation.
Step 1: Apply in Grants.gov

DOJ applications require you to complete two things:

1) Select Apply for Grants under the Applicants column.
2) Enter your email address to be notified of any changes to the opportunity package before the closing date.
3) Click the Workspace icon to use Grants.gov.

The Funding Opportunity and Application Package on Grants.gov.

The SF-424 and SF-LLL on Grants.gov.

Within 48 hours of SF-424 and SF-LLL submission, you should receive two notifications from Grants.gov.

1) Confirming the receipt of the SF-424 and SF-LLL.
2) Stating whether the SF-424 and SF-LLL were successfully validated and submitted or were rejected due to errors—with an explanation.
Step 2: Apply in JustGrants

Applicants will then submit the full application including attachments in JustGrants at JustGrants.usdoj.gov.
There are certain web-based forms that must be submitted directly into the system.

- Proposal Abstract
- Solicitation-Specific Data submitted with the Application
- Goals, Objectives, Deliverables, and Timelines
- Budget Detail Form
- Application Disclosure of Duplication Cost Items

Pay attention to required sections. If a section is required and presents you with web-based entries, you cannot upload a document instead. You must use the format required in the application.
What to Expect After Submitting an Application

The entity will be notified that they have received an award when all applications for the solicitation have been reviewed before September 30.

The system will notify:
- The Entity Administrator and Authorized Representative when the deadline for applications has changed.
- The Application Submitter, Entity Administrator, and Authorized Representative when the application is received in JustGrants from Grants.gov.
- The Entity Administrator when the award notification has been sent.

The entity should check the system regularly so that any upcoming deadlines for submitting applications and documentation are addressed in a timely manner.

Once the application deadline passes in JustGrants, you may see a banner that says it is past due. If your status is “Submitted,” your application has been received by DOJ and you can ignore the past due banner.

Use the 2022 NCVRW artwork to help inspire your community and raise awareness of victims’ rights. The 2022 NCVRW theme is Rights, access, equity for all victims.

This year's theme underscores the importance of helping crime survivors find their justice by—

• enforcing victims' rights,
• expanding access to services, and
• ensuring equity and inclusion for all.
