Overview
The U.S. Department of Justice (DOJ), Office of Justice Programs (OJP), Office for Victims of Crime (OVC) seeks applications for funding to develop the 2023 National Crime Victims’ Rights Week (NCVRW) Resource Guide. This program furthers the DOJ’s mission by producing a comprehensive kit that will serve as a resource for the victim services field in their efforts to heighten public awareness of crime victims’ issues nationwide during NCVRW in April 2023 and throughout the year.

This solicitation incorporates the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide by reference. The OJP Grant Application Resource Guide provides guidance to applicants to prepare and submit applications to OJP for funding. If this solicitation expressly modifies any provision in the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide, the applicant is to follow the guidelines in this solicitation as to that provision.

This solicitation expressly modifies the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide by not incorporating the “Disclosure of Process Related to Executive Compensation” provisions in the “Application Attachments” section.

To advance Executive Order 13929 Safe Policing for Safe Communities, the Attorney General determined that all state, local, and university or college law enforcement agencies must be certified by an approved independent credentialing body or have started the certification process, to be eligible for FY 2022 DOJ discretionary grant funding. To become certified, the law enforcement agency must meet two mandatory conditions: (1) the agency’s use-of-force policies adhere to all applicable federal, state, and local laws and (2) the agency’s use-of-force policies prohibit chokeholds except in situations where use of deadly force is allowed by law. The certification requirement also applies to law enforcement agencies receiving DOJ discretionary grant funding through a subaward. For detailed information on this certification requirement, please visit https://cops.usdoj.gov/SafePolicingEO to access the Standards for Certification on Safe Policing for Safe Communities, the Implementation Fact Sheet, and the List of Designated Independent Credentialing Bodies.

All recipients and subrecipients (including any for-profit organization) must forgo any profit or management fee.

OVC may elect to fund applications submitted under this FY 2022 solicitation in future fiscal years, dependent on, among other considerations, the merit of the applications and the availability of appropriations.

Program Description

Overview

OJP is committed to advancing work that promotes civil rights and racial equity, increases access to justice, supports crime victims and individuals impacted by the justice system, strengthens community safety and protects the public from crime and evolving threats and builds trust between law enforcement and the community.

This cooperative agreement will support the development of a comprehensive guide for the crime victims’ advocacy field to increase public awareness of crime victim issues nationwide during National Crime Victims’ Rights Week (NCVRW) in April 2023, and throughout the year, and begin preparations for the 2024 NCVRW theme narrative.

Statutory Authority

34 U.S.C. § 20103(c)(1)(A)

Specific Information

Each April since 1981, NCVRW has been formally designated and commemorated at the federal level. The federal observance coincides with rallies, vigils, and public awareness campaigns staged in communities throughout the Nation. The widespread observance of the event presents a unique opportunity to articulate a consistent and unified message about the plight of our Nation’s crime victims, and to draw attention to the work of advocates and activists who assist them.

Since 1986, the NCVRW Resource Guide has been developed annually to assist victims, survivors, advocates, and communities in planning and preparing for their own local NCVRW commemoration each spring. The Resource Guide is released each winter so that the victim services field can plan for local NCVRW events to be held during the month of April. It includes valuable information on how to develop a public awareness campaign and use social media effectively and how to work with the media and develop partnerships to expand the reach of the campaign. The Resource Guide also features important landmarks impacting the victims field over the past three decades, a variety of camera-ready public awareness posters, and customizable artwork templates.

The NCVRW theme is selected by OVC with input from national victim service organizations throughout the country and the victims field. The theme changes annually to reflect current issues facing crime victims and the victims field, or to commemorate major milestones of the crime victims’ rights movement. The theme directs the look and feel of the Resource Guide, which includes artwork developed to convey the NCVRW theme each year. Through this cooperative agreement, OVC will continue to provide this resource to the victims field to aid community efforts to generate greater awareness among crime victims, survivors, and allied professionals about victims’ rights and services.

Goals, Objectives, Deliverables, and Timeline

Goals

The goal of this cooperative agreement is to increase public awareness of crime victim issues nationwide during NCVRW in April 2023 and throughout the year.

Objectives

Objective 2: Develop and submit a theme narrative for 2024.

Deliverables
OVC will provide the successful applicant with the approved 2023 theme and theme narrative. The 2023 theme will be reflected throughout the 2023 Resource Guide. All content shall be developed for online dissemination to the crime victims field.

The applicant awarded funding under this cooperative agreement will work in close coordination and consultation with OVC in all aspects of the development of the Resource Guide. Project activities and deliverables include the following:

1. Create camera-ready artwork for the annual NCVRW theme. This entails working closely with designated OVC staff to develop artistic concepts that graphically depict the NCVRW theme as identified by OVC, to be used for the theme poster and collateral Resource Guide materials. The applicant should plan for a minimum of three rounds of designs and revisions to the original concepts, as requested by OVC.
2. Attend regular meetings with OVC project staff to review and discuss NCVRW Resource Guide components and content.
3. Develop a detailed week-by-week time-task plan with steps for program development, implementation, and evaluation that designates staff responsible for the implementation of each task. The plan shall include all major tasks (e.g., project kickoff meeting; public awareness poster development, design, and presentation to OVC; Resource Guide content development; OVC review and feedback on all Resource Guide content; and evaluation of the usefulness of the Resource Guide by users). OVC anticipates that all final content will be delivered to OVC by November 30, 2022; however, the actual date may vary depending on the date of the grant award.
4. Develop the written content of the Resource Guide. All final written material must be professionally edited prior to its submission.
5. Deliver camera-ready Resource Guide files and 508-compliant PDF files to OVC for posting to the Resource Guide website for download by the field. The content developer must also provide alternative tag descriptions for any images, charts, or other graphics that appear throughout the Resource Guide. Close coordination with OVC or its designee is required for this task.
6. Develop an evaluation to measure Resource Guide user satisfaction that includes a plan for soliciting feedback. The evaluation should also capture ways in which the Resource Guide was used by the field to heighten public awareness of crime victim issues.
7. Deliver the results of an intellectual property search on the NCVRW theme and artwork.
8. Develop and submit at least three options for the 2024 theme statement from which OVC will select the 2024 theme.
9. Develop a written narrative that explains the message of the OVC-selected 2024 NCVRW theme.

The Goals, Objectives, and Deliverables are directly related to the performance measures that show the completed work's results, as discussed in the “Application and Submission Information” section.

Applications that meet the basic minimum requirements will be evaluated by peer reviewers. Applications will be evaluated on how the proposed project/program addresses the following criteria:

1. Statement of the Problem/Description of the Issue (20%) - evaluate the applicant’s understanding of the program/issue to be addressed.
2. Project Design and Implementation (40%) - evaluate the adequacy of the proposal, including the goals, objectives, timelines, milestones, and deliverables.
3. Capabilities and Competencies (20%) - evaluate the administrative and technical capacity of the applicant to successfully accomplish the goals and objectives.

5. Budget (10%) - evaluate for completeness, cost effectiveness, and allowability (e.g., reasonable, allocable, and necessary for project activities).
6. Other Specify (5%) - evaluate the resumes of key personnel and time-task plan.

Other Review Criteria/Factors

Other important considerations for OVC include geographic diversity, strategic priorities, available funding, past... performance, and the extent to which the Budget Worksheet and Budget Narrative (web-based form) accurately explain project costs that are reasonable, necessary, and otherwise allowable under federal law and applicable federal cost principles.

Review Process

Applications submitted under this solicitation that meet the basic minimum requirements, will be evaluated for technical merit by a peer review panel(s) in accordance with OJP peer review policy and procedures using the review criteria listed above.

OJP screens applications to ensure they meet the basic minimum requirements prior to conducting the peer review. Although specific requirements may vary, the following are common requirements applicable to all OJP solicitations:

- The application must be submitted by an eligible type of applicant.
- The application must request funding within programmatic funding constraints (if applicable).
- The application must be responsive to the scope of the solicitation.
- The application must include all items necessary to meet the basic minimum requirements.

Pursuant to the Part 200 Uniform Requirements, before award decisions are made, OJP also reviews information related to the degree of risk posed by the applicant. Among other things to help assess whether an applicant with one or more prior federal awards has a satisfactory record with respect to performance, integrity, and business ethics, OJP checks whether the applicant is listed in SAM as excluded from receiving a federal award.

In addition, if OJP anticipates that an award will exceed $250,000 in federal funds, OJP also must review and consider any information about the applicant that appears in the non-public segment of the integrity and performance system accessible through SAM (currently, the Federal Awardee Performance and Integrity Information System, FAPIIS).

Important note on FAPIIS: An applicant may review and comment on any information about itself that currently appears in FAPIIS and was entered by a federal awarding agency. OJP will consider such comments by the applicant, in addition to the other information in FAPIIS, in its assessment of the risk posed by the applicant.

Absent explicit statutory authorization or written delegation of authority to the contrary, all final award decisions will be made by the Assistant Attorney General, who may consider not only peer review ratings and OVC recommendations, but also other factors as indicated in this section.

Federal Award Administration Information

Federal Award Notices

See the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide for information on award notifications and instructions.

Administrative, National Policy, and Other Legal Requirements

If selected for funding, in addition to implementing the funded project consistent with the OJP-approved application, the recipient must comply with all award conditions and all applicable requirements of federal statutes and regulations, including the applicable requirements referred to in the assurances and certifications executed in connection with award acceptance. For additional information on these legal requirements, see the “Administrative, National Policy, and Other Legal Requirements” section in the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide.

Information Technology (IT) Security Clauses

An application in response to this solicitation may require inclusion of information related to information technology security. See the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide for information on information technology security.
General Information about Post-Federal Award Reporting Requirements
