

How Would You Help?

4 Steps To Using The Resource Guide

Step: 1

Learning

Educate yourself about National Crime Victims' Rights Week. Learn about this year's theme, "How would you help? Options, services, and hope for crime survivors," and what it means.

Step: 2

Strategizing And Planning

Use this guide to plan your outreach, whether you're a victim advocate, service provider, agency, or a member of the community who wants to get involved. This guide has strategies and tips for community members and allied professionals alike.

Step: 3

Taking Action

Use the artwork and templates in this resource guide to produce social media posts, flyers, and more that you can place around your community. Customize templates to send press releases, publish blog posts, submit proposed proclamations to local officials, and more. You'll also find ideas for holding events and creating awareness campaigns.

Step: 4

Discovering Helpful Resources

Refer back to this resource guide throughout 2024 to share content and raise awareness in your community about crime victims' rights and encourage your audience to become trauma-informed and be ready to provide options, services, and hope to survivors.
