NARRATIVE QUESTIONS

1. Please explain any significant change in the number of applications received during the reporting period.
Our sexual assault forensic claims have increased due to a policy change making it easier for providers to file claims for reimbursement of sexual assault exams.
2. The average length of time to process an application for claim eligibility for compensation
Count days from time of receipt of application to decision. 60

Please explain your state's procedure for processing an application for claim eligibility, from time of receipt of application to decision. An application is received and reviewed along with a police report and all related bills, pay stubs, etc. The entire contents are reviewed for eligibility and a claim is processed.
3. Does your state have a victim satisfaction survey?
No
4. Please describe any emerging/major issues or notable trends that were encountered in your state that had an impact on your program's ability to meet the needs of crime victims during the reporting period.
None
5. Please describe in detail efforts taken to serve Victims of Federal Crime during the reporting period.
We have an ongoing working relationship with the Federal advocates and open communication with Federal crime victims. We continue to provide trainings as requested by agencies that provide direct assistance to Federal crime victims.
6. Please describe any notable activities during the reporting period that improved the process of victim compensation services.
Rule change that removed the definition of loss of support and dependent and added clarifying rules 18.354 (2 and 3). We also had an initiative to decrease the backlog of incomplete applications
7. Please describe in detail ways in which your state used VOCA Administrative funds and the impact of these funds on the state's ability to improve victim compensation services during the reporting period.
VOCA funds have allowed our program to fully compensate victims benefits under the may expansions of coverage. Without these funds, some of the coverage's might not have become available with the federal initiative.
8. Were there any laws, initiatives, or policy changes in your state regarding victim compensation during the reporting period? If yes, please briefly describe them and their impact.
Policy change for the SAFE Response program, allowing providers to bill for victims who did not provide their social security number. We also have started a project to eliminate back log of incomplete claims by calling the victims and provide a written request.
9. Please describe system-coordination efforts with prosecutors, law enforcement, courts, U.S. attorneys' offices, tribal systems, State VOCA Victim Assistance Coordinator, or other key personnel within the criminal justice system in your state to reduce barriers to victims who may apply to receive victim compensation.
We continue to provide on-going training to prosecutor advocates, law enforcement, VOCA grantees and other community groups.
10. Please explain any public outreach efforts to improve awareness of your program.
We continue our outreach efforts to underserved and all communities with PSA, billboards and training efforts
11. Please list any other outcome measure(s) that are reported to the governor, legislature, or other state entity that have not been reported in this submission. Provide the actual measure(s). The data may be reported separately in your progress report.
None
12. Please provide any additional comments that are helpful to improving the Victim Compensation state and/or federal program.
None
