Describe any program or educational materials developed during the reporting period.
For this reporting period all program or educational materials for VOCA outreach purposes were subsidized by other funding sources.
Describe any planning or training events held during the reporting period.
There were no planning or training events conducted by the OAG during this period for the VOCA funding as the island was in recovery mode from a major disaster.
Describe any program policies changed during the reporting period.
There were no program policy changes during this reporting period as the the island was in recovery mode from a major disaster.
Describe any earned media coverage events/episodes during the reporting period.
During this period the OAG in collaboration with the OAG Child Support division hosted a community outreach that also promoted awareness of victims services. No VOCA funding was used for the coverage.
Describe any coordinated responses/services for assisting crime victims during the reporting period.
The OAG continues to strive for improvement in the victim services it provides and continues to collaborate and partner with victim assistance services providers, advocates and non profit organizations in public and/or private entities. This initiative helps the OAG to identify the challenges and needs of victims of crime and in addition improve delivery of services to victims.
Please discuss the major issues in your state that either assist or prevent victims from receiving assistance during the reporting period.
There were no major issues during this reporting period that affected efforts in continuance of services for victims of crime. Although recovery efforts were in place from the island's major disaster, the OAG continued services and addressed any problems that had arisen during this period quickly to avoid delays in servicing of victims. The major setback for was the availability of communication i.e., phone services due to damages from the disaster.
Please describe ways that your agency promoted the coordination of public and private efforts within the community to help crime victims during the reporting period.
During this period we had worked in collaboration with our public and private sectors to include our VOCA subrecipients to provide information via social media and our OAG website to victims of crime.
Please describe any notable activities at the grantee level during the reporting period that improved delivery of victim services.
During this reporting period in collaboration with the OAG Victim Services and Child Support enforcement an outreach event was held to provide information available for victims of crime during the month of August. Participation in these events were funded via other sources and no VOCA funds were used.
Please discuss each priority (i.e., child abuse, domestic assault, sexual assault, and underserved) in which VOCA funds have been used to assist crime victims during the reporting period
As the OAG is responsible for the administration of the grant, no VOCA funds were used. VOCA funds awarded to six (6) subrecipients for FY20 were distributed in the following order: 54% sub-awarded toward domestic and family violence discipline, 54% to child abuse, 41% for sexual assault, and 41% to under served areas.
Please briefly describe efforts taken to serve Victims of Federal crime during the reporting period.
The OAG continues its coordinated efforts with the federal government - U. S. Attorney's Office, U.S. Postal Service, U.S. Customs and other federal entities whenever necessary
Please identify any emerging issues or notable trends affecting crime victim services in your state during the reporting period.
Domestic/Family Violence remained a major trend during this reporting period. Subrecipients were faced with challenges in the area of housing facilities for the victims, shortage of staff to assist in the growing number of victim cases, communication with victims was also an obstacle as victims may not have reliable communication devices or the language barrier when interpreters were not available.
Please briefly outline any staffing retention issues that your victim assistance program has and why these issues may occur during the reporting period.
As the OAG is responsible for the administration of the grant, any staff retention issues were reported by the subrecipients with only one subrecipient who had identified staffing issues due to resignation, however it was immediately addressed and resolved with the hiring of a replacement.
Please explain your state process to publicize its victim assistance funding for services to victims of crime during the reporting period.
The OAG issues a Call for Proposals (CFP) or Notice of Funding Availability for VOCA grant funding. The CFP is drafted by the OAG s grants administrator based on the unique and special conditions of the grant award year and reviewed and approved by the Attorney General for publishing/posting. Upon approval, the CFP is published as a print advertisement in a local newspaper of general circulation for a total of three (3) consecutive business days and posted on the OAG s official website. A user link is created for interested applicants to download the application and required federal certification forms with proposal instructions. The OAG s grant administrator sends email notices to victim service providers and/or entities who, as potential vendors, expressed interest in being notified of funding opportunities. Interested parties/entities can arrange to pick up a copy of the CFP package by visiting the OAGs Administration Division, or a copy of the package can be provided via regular mail or email. Questions regarding the posted solicitation will be reviewed and a written response will be provided and uploaded onto the OAG s website for interested parties to access. Amendments or changes to the CFP will be made prior to the end of the proposal submission date and published/posted in the same manner as indicated above.
Please explain how your state is able to direct funding to new/underserved populations during the reporting period.
As of this reporting period the OAG is working on identifying the new/underserved populations so as to be able to properly utilize funding to service these victims of crime.
Please explain how your program is able to respond to gaps in services during the reporting period.
As the OAG is responsible for the administration of the grant, the subrecipients are in regular communication through a Coalition membership. Members meet monthly to discuss crime victim trends, challenges and/or success in their programs and in addition they share information for any upgrades or enhancements to the victim services provided that may be useful to other subrecipients in their mission to improve victim services.
Please list and explain any outcome measure(s) that are reported to the governor, legislature, or other state entity during the reporting period.
As the OAG is the state administrator for the grant, no reporting is required to the Governor, Legislature or state entity.
