NARRATIVE QUESTIONS

1. Please explain any significant change in the number of applications received during the reporting period.
Guam saw a slight decrease in victim compensation applications received as compared to the previous fiscal year mostly attributed to the partial shutdown of government activities due to the COVID-19 pandemic. There were no other significant changes that occurred during the reporting period.
2. The average length of time to process an application for claim eligibility for compensation
Count days from time of receipt of application to decision. 120

Please explain your state's procedure for processing an application for claim eligibility, from time of receipt of application to decision. Explain the responsibilities of your office in processing a claim: Guam has a centralized system, within the Office of Attorney General of Guam (OAG), administering the Criminal Compensation Program (CICP) and assisting the Criminal Injuries Compensation Commission (CICC). The CICP engages in the following activities: processing applications, providing legal review to the CICC, disbursing funds, providing ongoing technical assistance, and routinely monitoring state standards relative to baseline claim processing requirements for local crime victim compensation programs. How long does it take to process a VOCA claim? Pursuant to Guam law, an applicant shall be notified within twenty (20) business days from the date their application is submitted as to whether the applicant meets all statutorily eligibility requirements and whether the application is complete. The applicant is then informed as to the date and time at which the CICP will hear the case. How long does it take to cut a check for a VOCA claim? The CICP generally disburses compensation funds on a quarterly basis upon receipt of the signed payment authorization order of the CICC.
3. Does your state have a victim satisfaction survey?
No
4. Please describe any emerging/major issues or notable trends that were encountered in your state that had an impact on your program's ability to meet the needs of crime victims during the reporting period.
During this reporting period, there were no emerging/major issues or notable trends encountered that would impact OAG's ability to meet the needs of crime victims. With the ongoing limitations as a result of the ongoing COVID pandemic crisis situation, the OAG has adjusted its internal procedures to ensure continuity of victim services and compensation in a virtual environment. The OAG continues to assess its CICP processes to enhance or expand its preparedness in the delivery of victim services during any crisis.
5. Please describe in detail efforts taken to serve Victims of Federal Crime during the reporting period.
The OAG, through its CICP did not serve any victims of federal crime during the reporting period; however, the OAG continues to assess its processes to enhance or expand its preparedness in the delivery of victim services to all crime victims.
6. Please describe any notable activities during the reporting period that improved the process of victim compensation services.
During the reporting period, the CICP's administrative staff successfully transitioned its procedures from in-person interviews and hearings to accommodate virtual interviews and CICC hearings. CICP staff worked diligently to ensure continuity in services for victims/applicants. Additionally, CICP administrative staff created a centralized database in file maker pro to track and manage CICP applications and compensation award amounts and dates more efficiently.
7. Please describe in detail ways in which your state used VOCA Administrative funds and the impact of these funds on the state's ability to improve victim compensation services during the reporting period.
No VOCA compensation funds were allocated for administration and training during the reporting period.
8. Were there any laws, initiatives, or policy changes in your state regarding victim compensation during the reporting period? If yes, please briefly describe them and their impact.

9. Please describe system-coordination efforts with prosecutors, law enforcement, courts, U.S. attorneys' offices, tribal systems, State VOCA Victim Assistance Coordinator, or other key personnel within the criminal justice system in your state to reduce barriers to victims who may apply to receive victim compensation.
The CICP currently receives referrals from the OAG's Victim Service Center and other non-profit organizations. The program encourages collaboration between prosecutors, law enforcement, courts, victim advocates, and other programs/agencies that assist crime victims with information and resource material as it pertains to victim recovery and compensation.
10. Please explain any public outreach efforts to improve awareness of your program.
The OAG did not conduct any public outreach events during the reporting period.

11. Please list any other outcome measure(s) that are reported to the governor, legislature, or other state entity that have not been reported in this submission. Provide the actual measure(s). The data may be reported separately in your progress report.

A semi-annual report is submitted to the Governor's Office and Legislative Office. The report includes statistical data on the compensation amount awarded, compensation amount denied, applicants found ineligible, pending applications, and a tabulation of the total amount of compensation awarded within a given period. Other than the general statistics captured in this report, the CICP reports payment amounts issued directly to public and/or private agencies/vendors for expenses incurred by victims as a result of a qualifying crime.

12. Please provide any additional comments that are helpful to improving the Victim Compensation state and/or federal program.

There are no additional comments at this time; however, the OAG continues to research and explore new initiatives and best practices to improve its victim compensation program.
