NARRATIVE QUESTIONS

1. Please explain any significant change in the number of applications received during the reporting period.
There has not been a significant change in the number of applications received.
2. The average length of time to process an application for claim eligibility for compensation
Count days from time of receipt of application to decision. 59

Please explain your state's procedure for processing an application for claim eligibility, from time of receipt of application to decision. 1) New applications are received and entered into a database by a Claims Processor. 2) New workloads are evaluated for eligibility by the Claims Examiner and missing documentation is requested. 3) Claims Examiners submit reviewed claims with Decision recommendations to the Claims Supervisor. 4) The Claims Supervisor reviews all claims for accuracy and submits Claim Decision and Supporting Documentation to a five (5) member Board. 5) The Board reviews all claims for Approval or Denial leading to an Interim Decision. Interim Decision is mailed to the Claimant. 6) The Claimant has fifteen (15) days to Appeal an Interim Decision to the Board. Appealed Interim Decisions result in Hearings. The result of any Hearing may be to Affirm, Modify, or Reverse the Interim Decision. 7) After the fifteen days has elapsed the Interim Decision is forwarded to the Executive Director/Designee to be reviewed a signed resulting in a Final Decision.
3. Does your state have a victim satisfaction survey?
Yes

A. Number of victim satisfaction surveys distributed during the reporting period. 1

B. Number of victim satisfaction surveys completed during the reporting period. 24

C. Number of surveys that indicated satisfaction with the victim compensation program during the reporting period. 14
4. Please describe any emerging/major issues or notable trends that were encountered in your state that had an impact on your program's ability to meet the needs of crime victims during the reporting period.
None at this time.
5. Please describe in detail efforts taken to serve Victims of Federal Crime during the reporting period.
When we have a Federal case, we work directly with the FBI advocate/liaison to get the information needed in a letter format which answers the critical questions needed for us to move forward with processing the claim
6. Please describe any notable activities during the reporting period that improved the process of victim compensation services.
None to report at this time.
7. Please describe in detail ways in which your state used VOCA Administrative funds and the impact of these funds on the state's ability to improve victim compensation services during the reporting period.
VOCA funds continue to assist the State of Georgia in providing direct benefits to victims and witnesses of violent crimes, as well as their families. In addition to benefits, our VOCA funds help us to sustain staff critical to the work we do to ensure we give the best service to crimes victims. For example, our Customer Service staff continue to ensure that claim statuses, information needed to process claims and payment information can be readily provided without victims having to be transferred to another staff person.
8. Were there any laws, initiatives, or policy changes in your state regarding victim compensation during the reporting period? If yes, please briefly describe them and their impact.
No
9. Please describe system-coordination efforts with prosecutors, law enforcement, courts, U.S. attorneys' offices, tribal systems, State VOCA Victim Assistance Coordinator, or other key personnel within the criminal justice system in your state to reduce barriers to victims who may apply to receive victim compensation.
Our VOCA Assistance administrator, which is housed at CJCC, continues to partner with our State Prosecuting Attorney's office to fund advocates serving as a direct liaison for the Victim Compensation program. This joint effort has helped to alleviate some of the barrier's victims are faced with and foster advocacy efforts on their behalf.
10. Please explain any public outreach efforts to improve awareness of your program.

Currently, the program has three advocates dedicated to coordinating and participating in outreach events throughout the state, but particularly in underserved/underrepresented communities. In addition, the agency's Communications Director utilizes social media platforms to spread awareness about the program. Finally, Victims Compensation 101 trainings are held throughout the year and open to all professionals (e.g., law enforcement, advocates, providers) who come into contact with crime victims. The trainings are held to inform local partners about the Program and have them serve as a liaison/connector for potentially eligible claimants.

11. Please list any other outcome measure(s) that are reported to the governor, legislature, or other state entity that have not been reported in this submission. Provide the actual measure(s). The data may be reported separately in your progress report.

None at this time.

12. Please provide any additional comments that are helpful to improving the Victim Compensation state and/or federal program.

None at this time.
